ISC Newsletter Policy

If you sign up to receive news from the ISC conference series and to share your feedback, you will receive complimentary electronic newsletters, announcements, and surveys from ISC Events and ISC Group, acting on behalf of Prometheus GmbH.

The newsletters and announcements contain relevant information about the ISC High Performance conference series and about high performance computing. The surveys contain questions about the yearly conference program and your perception of the conference. The benefits include receiving regular updates about the conference and exhibition and the possibility to share your feedback about the conference.

I understand that I can withhold my consent and that I may request at any time not to be contacted by ISC Events, ISC Group, or Prometheus GmbH.
